A Brief History

The Shelter Harbor Inn is located on a farm dating back to the early 1800s. The original farmhouse, after numerous additions, has become the focal point of the Inn while the surrounding 200 acres of farmland has become the community of Shelter Harbor.

The Inn was first established in 1911 when Dr. Franklin Lawson from New York City purchased the property in order to establish a community for musicians. This new community called "Musicolony" would become an ideal place for musicians and their families to relax in between the summer performing season in Newport and the winter in New York City.

By the early 1920s, Musicolony had grown to include many non-musicians and the community changed its name to "Shelter Harbor". The roads still retain the names of famous musicians such as Wagner, Handel, Bach and Rossini.

During the 1930s, the Inn was run by Mr. & Mrs. Bossy. He was an accomplished equestrian and developed a well-known riding academy on the property while his wife was in charge of running the Inn. Many of our local citizens remember their early equestrian training from Mr. Bossy.

For most of the 1940s the Shelter Harbor Inn was a nursing home but was reconverted to an Inn by Mrs. Romaine who bought the property in 1950. She ran the Inn during the summer months for the next 15 years. After that, Pete and Jackie D'Lude purchased the Inn and ran it year-round for ten years. In 1976 Jim Dey, our current owner, purchased the Inn.
